A photograph of a modern restaurant courtyard. The main building has a traditional-style roof with dark tiles and exposed wooden beams. Large windows with wooden frames are visible. In the foreground, there is a small, dark, rectangular pool. To the right of the pool, a wicker chair is placed on a wooden deck. A white lattice fence is also visible on the right. The background shows a modern glass skyscraper. The text "THE YARD RESTAURANT" is overlaid in the center.
